CHAMBER CHAT

November 15, 2007

Mike Hovda, President and Founder of a training firm called InsideOutLeadership will be sharing insight on “Am I the Only Normal Person Working Here?”

Note: Cost of session will be $25 for members/$35 for non members

AM I THE ONLY ENTIRELY NORMAL PERSON WORKING HERE?

By

Michael A. Hovda

President

InsideOutLeadership®

Did you ever go home after a particularly challenging day at work and think something like “I would be such a good team-member if I could just work with someone else” or “I would be such a good leader if I just had different people working for me”?

You tell yourself that they just don't seem to make people like they used to. In fact after some particularly bad days you may actually long for the days of public flogging! If so, then AM I THE ONLY ENTIRELY NORMAL PERSON WORKING HERE? is for you.

Mike Hovda, an expert in dealing with a variety of people, will help you understand yourself and others, as well as help you navigate through the workable solutions. You will understand how we are all inclined to approach problems, people, pace, and policies in a unique way... and yet with similarities. All this is done with a light and humorous tone.

Mike will leave you refreshed and confident, ready to work with just about anyone.

Food Challenge chains....

Bill Amling from Health by Design has a great idea to help the North Scott Food Pantry.

Health By Design has made a donation to the North Scott Food Pantry—then he challenged another business to make a donation also. They, then, have to call another business and challenge them to donate as well... and on and on. The donation can be any amount including food—it all goes to a great cause.

Bill would like to encourage all North Scott Businesses to start a Food Challenge Chain to help re-stock the Pantry!

Checks can be made out to the North Scott Food Pantry and mailed to:

Ashford University..

Healthier Hilgendorf-Cooley has been promoted to Assistant Dean of Students at Ashford University.

Now, with the combined title of Assistant Dean of Students/Director of Career and Alumni Services, she will be responsible for implementing University policies and procedures and well as counseling students in the next step of their careers, planning events, and working with alumni.

All about You Salon & Spa..

Bobbie Noel-Behrens of Long Grove was named to the Iowa Cosmetology Educators (ICE) Design team at the Cosmetologists and Barbers of Iowa (CBI) Fall Education Day held at the Renaissance Savery Hotel in Des Moines on Sunday, September 16, 2007.

Along with Bobbie, Richard Sheriff of Des Moines, Louanne Zortman of Sioux City and Tina Gage of Waterloo were all named to the team. The Design Team coordinates new trends in hair, skin and nails and travels the state presenting Continuing Education Classes in those trends to licensed professionals. The Team is selected through a competition involving balance, design and creativity to express forward thinking designs in men's and women's fashion.

Iowa Cosmetology Educators is the Educational Committee of Cosmetologists and Barbers of Iowa, which is the largest association for salon professional in the State of Iowa. The main activities of the Association include conducting ongoing educational programs for its members, publishing materials for the members to keep them informed on the changes in the profession and monitoring which affect the profession.

Bobbi Noel-Behrens is also the President of Affiliate 3, Davenport area, of Cosmetologists and Barbers of Iowa and owns All About You Salon & Spa in Long Grove, Iowa.
